

OUR ROUTE FOR THE TASTE

We would like to show you the tastiest corners of our city. To do this, we will take you on a gourmet walk, which will include historical, architectural and culinary highlights. The 2.6km walk leads you past UNESCO World Heritage sites, to the modern Hafencity. Along the way, we will give you a look behind the scenes of the businesses that work in the area, and allow you to taste the products you are seeing.

1 KÖLLN HAFERLAND

3 KONTORHAUSVIERTEL

Fischertwiete

The „Kontore“ of Europe’s first office quarter were used for trading purposes of Hamburg’s merchants with the whole world. Especially worth seeing: the „Spinkenhof“ and the „Chilehaus“. It was build in 1922-24 by the architect Fritz Höger with 4,8 million bricks and 2,800 windows and resembles a ship’s bow. The constructor was Henry Slogan who gained his fortune by trading with Salpeter from Chile.

4 POGGENMÜHLEN-BRÜCKE

This bridge is named by numerous lodgers who lived here before. Poggen, in standard German: toad. You get the greatest view on the „Speicherstadt“ from here, a direct view on the moated castle that was built in 1905. Labourer have lived here instead of aristocratic people: the keeper of the winches. They maintained the hydraulic winches by which merchandise has been lifted into the storehouses.

5 RATHAUS SPEICHERSTADT

Bei St. Annen 1

The building, built in 1902, is known for its exceptional style combination of renaissance and late gothic as well as for its enormous clock tower. Therefore, it differs from the other buildings in the „Speicherstadt“ and resembles a town hall. In reality, it is an administrative building and is occupied by the „Hamburger Hafen- und Lagerhaus-Aktiengesellschaft“, HHLA in short. From time to time, exhibitions take place in this building.

6 FLUSSSCHIFFERKIRCHE

Hohe Brücke 2

The „Flussschifferkirche“ is an evangelic and swimming church that was built on an inactive ship from 1906. Among other items, the décor consists of an organ, a bell tower and the church’s symbol: the anchor-cross. Apart from church services for up to 130 people, weddings and baptisms also take place on the river church.

7 SPICYS GEWÜRZMUSEUM

Am Sandtorkai 34; U3 Baumwall, bus line 6 Auf dem Sande

You won’t find a museum for spices like this anywhere else. Your visit will be an experience for the senses and attractive to every age group. All original spices that are exposed in the former storehouse can be smelled, touched and tasted. More than 900 exhibits over about 350m<sup>2</sup> show the process from crop growing and treatment to the finished product over the past five centuries.

9 TRADITIONSSCHIFFHAFEN

Sandtorhafen am Sandtorkai

Welcome to the maritime part of Hamburg – the „Hafen City“. The „Sandtorhafen“ from the 1860’s is the first artificially constructed inner harbour of Hamburg and has been used for trading purposes for a long time. In 2008, it has been reopened as a traditional harbour. Nowadays, the little harbour accommodates historical sailing boats which you can look at from a 380 meter long and swimming pontoon.

ELBPHILHARMONIE

Platz der Deutschen Einheit 1

The philharmonic orchestra has become Hamburg's emblem. The vitreous part of the building on top of the traditional for-mer storehouse includes 2 concert halls, a hotel as well as va-rious apartments. Since November 2016 the „Plaza“ is open to visitors who can enjoy the unique 360° view over Hamburg and its harbour. After a construction period of about 10 years, the opening concert took place in January 2017.
